INDEX FOR JANUARY

January 1 (Tuesday)
Ex-Solidarity Deputy Chairman Said Granted Asylum in Norway (p. 1)
Ex-Envoy Ushiba Dies at Hospital in Tokyo (p. 1)
Bechtel to Participate in Japan's N-Fuel Scheme (p. 1)
Emperor Ushers In 1985 With Family (p. 2)
Death Rate of Infants in Japan Drops to Lowest Level in World (p. 3)
25,000 Poles Attend Mass Outside Slain Priest's Church (p. 4)
Blast Hits French Embassy in Bonn (p. 4)
Keidanren Chairman Sees Strong U.S. as Key to World Peace (p. 6)
Tsukuba Expo '85 Getting Set for March 17 Opening (p. 7)
Editorial: Agenda for Japan
Jan. 2 (Wednesday)
No issue due to a Press Holiday
Jan. 3 (Thursday)
Premier Says Meet in U.S. Momentous (p. 17)
Bolivian Air Force Hunting for Missing U.S. Airliner (p. 17)
Faction Claims Rocket Attack on U.S Consulate in Kobe (p. 18)
'Churchill Alarmed by A-Bomb Tests, Feared U.S. Would Start World War' (p. 20)
U.S. Children on Save-the-Panda Tour (p. 21)
Drivers on Swiss Roads Face Lower Speed Limits (p. 22)
Union Carbide Faces Highest Damage Award in U.S. History (p. 23)
Britain Facing Crucial Decision on Cutting North Sea Oil Price (p. 25)
Editorial: Secrecy in Space
Jan. 4 (Friday)
Nakasone, Reagan Reaffirm Need for Unity, Close Consultations (p. 31)
Soviet Cruise Missile Believed to Have Gone Down in Finland (p. 31)
Solar Plant Nears Completion in Ehime (p. 32)
NTT Develops New Cell to Convert Solar Energy (p. 32)
Soviets Plan Big Water Diversion Project to Increase Level of Ebbing Caspian Sea (p. 35)
N.Y. Subway 'Vigilante' Surrenders to N.H. Police (p. 35)
R.P. Cancels 100 Percent Foreign Capital Privilege (p. 39)
Editorials: The Surplus Is Too Big
Foreigners for Public Jobs
Jan. 5 (Saturday)
Nakasone Reserves Right to Back, Reject SDI Plan (p. 45)
81.75 Mil. People Visit Religious Sites in 3 Days (p. 46)
1984 Traffic Death Toll Hits 9,226 Nationwide (p. 46)
U.S. Grants Political Asylum to Prominent Soviet Physicist (p. 47)
Largest Optical Telescope in the World Eyed in U.S. (p. 47)
Vietnam Commutes Death Sentence on Frenchman Convicted of Treason (p. 48)
Singapore Will Block Futures Mart 'Casino' (p. 49)
World Commodity Markets Feel Impact of New Chinese Policies (p. 51)
Editorial: 'Ron-Yasu' Relationship
Jan. 6 (Sunday)
Soviets Apologize for Stray Missile (p. 59)
$88 Mil. Japan Loan Will Build Colombian Hydroelectric Plant (p. 59)
Famed Potter Nakazato Dies at 89 (p. 60)
Western Fashion, Food Fads Taking China by Storm, News Agency Reports (p. 61)
Lumpy Ring of Hydrogen Found at Galaxy's Center (p. 61)
WHO Yearbook Gives Information on Mortality Rates (p. 61)
U.S. Unit in Europe Trained to Place Small N-Weapons Behind Enemy Lines (p. 62)
Editorial: Our Twisted Pedestrian Traffic
Jan. 7 (Monday)
Reagan Targets 4 Japanese Markets (p. 71)
U.S.-Soviet Trade Talks to Take Place in Moscow (p. 71)
Most People See Need for Some 'Nuclei Cities' (p. 72)
Celebrity Fleeting for New York Subway Vigilante (p. 73)
Boy George Gets Mediocrity Award (p. 74)
McKinney Triumphs in World Cup Slalom (p. 80)
Orient, Doncaster Defeat Tops in F.A. Cup Soccer (p. 81)
Editorial: East-West Arms Talks
Jan. 8 (Tuesday)
Shultz, Gromyko Meet for Talks to Revive N-Arms Negotiation (p. 83)
Special Tribunal Declares Nuclear War Is Inevitable (p. 83)
Council's Interim Report Urges Computer Training for Teachers (p. 84)
Fans Have Party to Fete Presley's 50th Birthday (p. 85)
Rome Has First Snowfall in 14 Years (p. 86)
Sustaining a Dream at Nishimachi: It Takes Many Caring People (p. 87)
Big 5 Banks Seek Approval for Convertible Bond Issue (p. 88)
MITI to Draft Report on Investments Abroad (p. 88)
Editorials: Dumping Nuclear Waste
City Hall Relocation Plan
Jan. 9 (Wednesday)
Geneva Talks Enter Unscheduled Session (p. 97)
Viet Troops Overrun Khmer Resistance Base (p. 97)
Study Finds Over 31 in 1,000 Senior Citizens Are Bedridden (p. 98)
Japanese Spacecraft Launched on Mission to Observe Comet (p. 98)
IDU Backs Reagan's 'Star Wars' Plan (p. 99)
'Beer Station' to Be on Tap in Spring (p. 99)
Death Toll in European Cold Snap Rises to 32 (p. 100)
Ferraro's Husband Says He's Guilty of Fraud Charge in Court Proceedings (p. 101)
Sony to Enter 8-mm VTR Market (p. 103)
U.S. Football All-Stars Arrive for Japan Bowl (p. 109)
Editorial: Japan-U.S. Telecom Cooperation
Jan. 10 (Thursday)
U.S., Soviets Agree to Resume Full-Scale Arms Control Talks (p. 111)
Baker to Replace Regan as Secretary of Treasury (p. 111)
Shinkansen Link to Ueno Completed (p. 112)
Nichidatsu Fujii Succumbs at 99 (p. 112)
High Court Assumes Responsibility for First U.K. 'Rent-A-Womb' Baby (p. 115)
Beijing Dance Contest Draws Hundreds (p. 115)
GM's Saturn Corp. Will Market Small Cars With Toyota's Help (p. 117)
Editorials: A Good Start in Geneva
Jan. 11 (Friday)
JNR Announces Its Own Rehabilitation Program (p. 125)
Khmer Guerrillas Launch Attack to Recapture Base (p. 125)
Computer Trainees Arrive From China (p. 126)
Poems on Travel Featured in Imperial Poetry Reading (p. 127)
Kennedy Chides S. African Official Over Resettlement Camp Conditions (p. 128)
Exhibit of World's Cars Opening Tomorrow at Harumi (p. 129)
Lockheed Unveils Concept for Space Station (p. 131)
Editorials: Cooperation in Space
The Soviet Missile Accident
Jan. 12 (Saturday)
Sandinistas' Ortega Becomes President (p. 139)
Nakasone to Pledge 'Freeze' on Plan for N-Waste Dumping (p. 139)
3 Foreign Residents in Okinawa Granted Japanese Nationality (p. 140)
Researchers Say Tiny 'Prisons' Cause Rare, Fatal Type of Human Senility (p. 141)
Damage From Icy Weather Mounts in Europe (p. 141)
U.S. Airlines Had Safe Year in 1984 (p. 142)
U.S. Weights Retaliatory Steps Against Japan Telecom Policies (p. 144)
Sinclair's Revolutionary Electric Minicar Debuts (p. 145)
Editorials: Nakasone Goes to Oceania
Computer Security
Jan. 13 (Sunday)
JSP, Komeito Agree to Discuss Coalition (p. 153)
Pershing 2 Missile Fire Kills 3 U.S. Soldiers in W. Germany (p. 153)
Fujiya Found to Be Target of Glico-Morinaga Extortionists (p. 154)
New Literary Prize Bared in Honor of Hemingway (p. 155)
Synthetic Hormone Set for Human Tests (p. 155)
State of Emergency Declared Amid Riots in New Caledonia (p. 156)
Editorials: Traffic Tolls: 1984 and 1985
A Winter as Forecast
Jan. 14 (Monday)
Nakasone Departs for Oceanian Tour (p. 165)
Sagan Urges Joint Mars Expedition (p. 165)
Teachers' Union Eyes Reforms to Counter Gov't Proposals (p. 166)
Angolan Guerrillas to Free Foreigners (p. 167)
France Sending More Troops to Quell New Caledonia Riots (p. 168)
World's 1st Fenceless 'Marine Ranch' Ready (p. 169)
Editorial: N-Arms Control Talks
Jan. 15 (Tuesday)
Nakasone Pledges Yen Credit for PNG 305-Km Road Project (p. 177)
Bank of England Acts to Halt Pound's Fall (p. 177)
'Baby Cotton ' Should Go to Couple: Court (p. 177)
Expo Advance Tickets Selling Well (p. 178)
House Panel Clears CIA of Role in Death Squad Killings (p. 179)
CIA Aid to Afghan Rebels Has Risen to $250 Mil., Post Says (p. 180)
Japan Chalks Up Record Annual Trade Surplus of $33.68 Billion (p. 181)
New Ceramic Developed (p. 181)
Editorials: The Korean Dialogue
A JNR Reform Plan
Jan. 16 (Wednesday)
Japan Won't Dump N-Waste Unilaterally (p. 191)
All Israeli Troops Will Leave Lebanon by Summer: Peres (p. 191)
Yokozuna Kitanoumi Retires (p. 191)
Japan's Urban Families Still Getting Smaller, Survey Says (p. 192)
Japan-Germany Center to Be Set Up (p. 193)
Tokyo Ceremony Opens Int'l Youth Year in Japan (p. 193)
Gandhi Sworn In, Pledges Not to Silence Opposition Parties (p. 194)
50 Feared Drowned After Boat Capsizes in Amazon (p. 195)
Smokers Face Boycott by Makers (p. 195)
Japan Banks, Calif, to Enter Pact in Attempt to Spur Trade (p. 197)
Matsuo Plays Last Rugby As Kamaishi Wins Title (p. 203)
Editorial: Nuclear Reactor Improvements
Jan. 17 (Thursday)
Nakasone Calls for Australian Help to Boost Asia-Pacific Era (p. 205)
Taiwan Admits Murder of Chinese-U.S. Author (p. 205)
Education Reform Council to Submit First Report to Premier in May or June (p. 206)
Panel Asked to Study Draft Law for 'Rent-a-Worker' Business (p. 207)
Neves Elected Brazil President (p. 208)
Photos of Soviet Attack Fighter Su-24 Published (p. 209)
Men Better at Math; Women at Language (p. 209)
5 Nations to Meet on Currency Marts (p. 211)
Editorials: Challenge for the Socialists
The Plight of Pelagic Fishing
Jan. 18 (Friday)
Ishibashi Says JSP Has Coalition Goal (p. 219)
Abrassimov Will Succeed Pavlov as Envoy (p. 219)
Extortionists Step Up Action, Deliver Two Letters in Osaka (p. 220)
Ushiba Center Eyed at Univ. of Virginia (p. 221)
7 Ranking Members of Armed Forces Comprise New Bangladesh Cabinet (p. 222)
Japanese American Ready for Shuttle (p. 223)
Marubeni to Become Martin Marietta Agent for Space Exploration Projects (p. 225)
Editorials: Why Japan Doesn't Buy Gas
Sino-U.S. Defense Cooperation
Jan. 19 (Saturday)
Greek, Turk Cypriot Leaders Meet at U.N. for Talks on Cyprus (p. 243)
JSP Convention Delegates Hit Leaders for Softening N-Stance (p. 243)
Korean Seeks to Overturn Education Board Ban (p. 244)
Deep Snow Sweeps Europe (p. 245)
Tobacco Cos., Opponents Target Women (p. 245)
Belgium Will Reveal Cruise Deployment Schedule by March (p. 246)
Record Number of Firms Went Bankrupt Last Year (p. 248)
Editorials: Democracy in Brazil
Tribute to Kitanoumi
Jan. 20 (Sunday)
U.S. Seen Urging Huge Tariff Cuts (p. 257)
Kim Plans to Leave U.S. for South Korea on Feb. 6 (p. 257)
High-Tech Tours Growing Popular Among Tourists (p. 258)
China's One-Child Policy Working Better in Cities Than Countryside (p. 259)
Fujitsu America Inc. Will Open New Oregon Plant (p. 261)
China, Hong Kong Co. Sign Accord to Build N-Plant (p. 261)
Editorials: Community in the Subways
Our Famous Water
Jan. 21 (Monday)
French Gov't Recalls Attache in New Delhi (p. 269)
Supporters Celebrate Start of 2nd Reagan Administration (p. 269)
Japan-USSR Fish Parley Breaks Off Sans Accord (p. 269)
Two Assaults on Trains Stir Debate Over Public Indifference (p. 270)
Priests to Stay in Nicaraguan Gov't Despite Vatican Sanctions (p. 271)
Cuban Airliner Crashes, Takes Lives of All 40 People Aboard (p. 272)
Europe's Severe Siberian Cold Wave Appears to Be Breaking (p. 272)
Editorial: Viet Offensive in Kampuchea
Jan. 22 (Tuesday)
Speaker Fukunaga Indicates He May Quit for Health Reasons (p. 281)
Plane Carrying 68 Crashes in Nevada (p. 281)
Setagaya Residents Demand Fair Compensation From NTT (p. 282)
Big Rock Concert to Aid N. Africans (p. 283)
Info-Processing Industry Hurt by Lack of Specialists: Panel (p. 285)
First Filmless X-Ray System Developed by Koyo Medical Co. (p. 285)
Editorial: Nakasone's Oceanian Trip
Jan. 23 (Wednesday)
President Appeals for 'New America' (p. 295)
Fukunaga Resigns House Post; Search for Successor Begins (p. 295)
Supreme Court Says Passport Ban on Former Nurse Illegal (p. 296)
MITI May Permit Imports of Gas (p. 297)
Socialist Leader Sakisaka Dies of Stroke at Age 87 (p. 297)
Secret Space Shuttle Flight Countdown Starts (p. 298)
Spy Arrests Mount in India as Soviet Connection Is Probed (p. 299)
Nakasone Urges Giant Strides in Market Liberalizing Plans (p. 301)
Dallas High-Tech Trade Center Opens (p. 302)
Editorials: Advances in Supercomputer Tech
Changing Semiconductor Market
Jan. 24 (Thursday)
Sakata to Become 64th House Speaker (p. 309)
Ver, 25 Others Indicted in R.P. for 2 Murders in Aquino Case (p. 309)
Miura Returns After 9-Month Exile (p. 310)
Highway Completion Provides 1-Hour Tokyo-Expo Site Trip (p. 311)
Cold Weather Hampering Discovery's Countdown (p. 312)
Bitter Chill in America, Europe Hits Homeless (p. 313)
Businessmen Appeal for Market-Opening (p. 314)
OPEC Panel to Recommend Lowering Benchmark Price $1 (p. 315)
Editorials: Reagan's Opportunity
JSP on Nuclear Plants
Jan. 25 (Friday)
Reagan-Chun Meet Could Be Affected If Kim Imprisoned (p. 323)
Chernenko Answers Pupil's Letter (p. 323)
1926 Yamato-e Picture Scroll Found (p. 324)
Warrant Issued for Suspect In Chiyoda Line Beating Case (p. 324)
Jomon People Had Plentiful Diet: Researchers (p. 325)
Ver Slips Into Courthouse to Be Booked; Set Free on $1,500 Bail (p. 326)
House of Lords Makes TV Debut (p. 326)
U.S. Rocket Ignited 'Near N-Missles' (p. 327)
Pan Am Orders 38 Aeroengines from Five-Nation Consortium (p. 329)
Soviets Post Lowest Postwar Growth Rate (p. 330)
Editorials: LDP as an Open Party
National Defense Guidelines
Jan. 26 (Saturday)
Astronauts Orbit in Secrecy to Block Monitoring by Soviets (p. 337)
Nakasone Pledges to Promote N-Disarmament, Free Trade (p. 337)
Two Arrested for Assaulting, Injuring Train Passengers (p. 338)
Sharon Loses Long Libel Suit Over Time Magazine Article (p. 339)
U.S. May Have Released 'Butcher of Auschwitz' (p. 339)
Gov't May Tell Privatized NTT to Purchase U.S. Equipment (p. 342)
Japan Remains World's Largest Auto Producer (p. 342)
Editorials: Premier Plays It Safe
Questions in 'Shunto'
Jan. 27 (Sunday)
Soviets, U.S. Approve March Geneva Talks (p. 353)
Yamaguchi Syndicate Boss Shot by Suspected Rivals (p. 353)
National Univ. Entrance Exam Attracts Record Few Aspirants (p. 354)
59-Yr.-Old Man to Row Across Pacific (p. 354)
Influenza Hits Epidemic Level in U.S. (p. 355)
Blacks Dismiss Botha's Offer Of Property Rights as 'Crumbs' (p. 356)
U.S. Gov't Seen Favoring End to Japanese Car Import Quotas (p. 357)
Editorials: Starting School in September
'Burials' in Space
Jan. 28 (Monday)
Pope Opens Tour of South America (p. 365)
U.S. Navy Arms Experts Arrive in China for Talks (p. 365)
4-Year-Old Salvadoran to Have Heart Surgery (p. 366)
Paraguay Gov't Torture Tactics Criticized by America's Watch (p. 367)
Survivors of Auschwitz Honor Dead on Liberation Anniversary (p. 368)
Poisoners Threaten 3 ROK Food Firms (p. 368)
Ireland's May Handily Wins Osaka Women's Marathon (p. 372)
Editorial: The New Caledonia Crisis
Jan. 29 (Tuesday)
Guideline Ensuring Defense Ability Eyed
25 Killed in Nagano Bus Crash (p. 377)
Police Attempt to Avert Gang War After Takenaka Murder (p. 378)
5,000 Evacuate Brazilian Shantytown (p. 379)
Israel, Egypt Resume Parley on Multinational Peace Force (p. 380)
Isuzu to Export Trucks, Plant Technology to China (p. 381)
OPEC Ministers Lean Toward Base Price Cut, Sources Say (p. 382)
La. Shrimpers Face 'Surimi' Competition (p. 382)
Editorial: Agenda in the Diet
Jan. 30 (Wednesday)
Iraq Says Big Ground Offensive Launched Across Iranian Lines
OPEC Meeting in Disarray; Egyptian Observer Quits
Saigo Had B Blood Type, Okubo's Was O (p. 392)
Japan Committee Against Withdrawing From UNESCO (p. 393)
Supervisor 'Took Tea Break' While Gas Leaked (p. 394)
Soviets Say They Can Divert Moscow-Bound Snow Clouds (p. 395)
U.S. Japan Agree on Talks to Cut Deficit in Four Areas (p. 397)
Editorials: Trans-Pacific Communications
Planning for Commuter Airplane
Jan. 31 (Thursday)
Gov't Predicts Tax Increases Necessary (p. 405)
OPEC Agrees to Narrow Price Differentials, Ministers Report (p. 405)
MITI to Halt Export Curbs on Cars Targeted for America (p. 405)
High School Teacher Dies After Beating by Drunken Student (p. 406)
Majority of Korean Residents Object to Fingerprinting: Poll (p. 407)
Slain Priest's Ex-Lawyer Defends Him (p. 409)
U.S.-Soviet Space Rendezvous Possible Within Coming Year (p. 409)
Matsushita Develops 3-D Television System (p. 410)
Editorial: A New Market-Opening Formula